Venezuela* and Mexico: revised draft resolution

Future operations of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women

The General Assembly,

Recalling its previous resolutions on the subject, particularly resolutions 55/219 of 23 December 2000 and 56/125 of 19 December 2001,

Recalling also that, in its resolution 56/125, it decided to establish a working group mandated to make recommendations to the General Assembly on the future operation of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women,

1. Welcomes the report of the Working Group on the Future Operations of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women,[1] which, inter alia, reaffirms the mandate of the Institute in the field of gender equality and the advancement of women and stresses the need for it to be reformed and revitalized;

2. Endorses the recommendations made by the Working Group on the future operations of the Institute and requests the Secretary-General to implement the measures recommended by the Working Group in this regard;[2]

3. Decides to extend the mandate of the Working Group established by the General Assembly in its resolution 56/125 in order to follow up the implementation of measures contained in paragraph 2 above, in close consultation with the Secretary-General;

4. Acknowledges that the measures contained in paragraph 2 above should be undertaken as provided within the context of the Secretary-General's reform programme, as outlined in his report of 14 July 1997[3] and in accordance with the recommendations contained in section VI.D of the report;

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.

5. Urges the Institute to intensify its fund-raising efforts and to diversify its funding sources to include private foundations, inter-agency and inter-institutional collaborations, among others;

6. Stresses the critical importance of voluntary financial contributions by Member States to the United Nations Trust Fund for the United Nations International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women in order to enable it to carry out its mandate;

7. Urges Member States to make voluntary contributions to the Trust Fund, particularly during the critical transitional period;

8. Requests the Working Group to present a preliminary report on the follow-up to the implementation of the measures referred to in paragraph 2 above to the Commission on the Status of Women at its forty-seventh session, and to present its final report thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-eighth session;

9. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To appoint, without delay, and in consultation with the Working Group, a Director to be chosen from among candidates who demonstrate knowledge and expertise in, inter alia, gender issues and social research;

(b) To report to the General Assembly at its fifty-eighth session on the implementation of the present resolution.
